

Déjà Vu by Sherri Turner - Setting the Scene

It's Christmas Eve and, after completing a long shift in the care home, Holly is enjoying relaxing at home with Kevin. But, as she admires the tree and twinkling fairy lights, something strange happens which disturbs her peace of mind.

Helpful Vocabulary and Phrases

It all seemed so familiar
Bushy tree
Wrapped in red and gold
They'd had those lights for years
Replica of their last Christmas
Still, she had the strangest feeling
Offer her a sherry
Hated the stuff
Behind the sofa
Hidden the champagne
Déjà vu
Pretty tired with extra shifts at work
Old dears
We've got tonight
Dinner tomorrow
Mrs Wade
Witchy Wade
Kids made up stories about
Bewitch you to cook dinner
Ancient fairy lights
The tree, the presents, the lights
Exactly the same
Her taking a nap
What happened next?
Close her eyes
Focussed on the room
Poinsettia