

Stories for Lipreading

Lies in the Sand by Sarah Lovett - Setting the Scene

Jenny has prepared a picnic and, full of happy expectation, is walking along the cliff path to the beach where she has arranged to meet up with her new partner, Patrick.

Helpful Vocabulary and Phrases

Striding
Cliff path
Heart
Nobody in sight - good
Skies
Sun
Bare arms
Seagulls scream
Heart is singing
I see him
At least
Deckchair
Back against Picnic
Crisps
Cake
I call out
Patrick
As I get nearer
Empty
Crawl
Little late
The edge
Too cold and I'm hungry
Wimp
Kick the carrier bag at my feet
Wine
Delve
My hand closes over an empty can
Guinness
His keys
Crumpled paper
Demands
Snatches
Selling antiques over the internet

Stories for Lipreading

Drinking already
You never said
Punched
He shrugs
Stolen biscuit
Building inside me